THE POOR OF LONDON

Aix, May 8th

A blue-book published last week on the parish of Rotherhithe is the first practical result of the Committee for housing the poor of London, appointed by Parliament in 1884. The committee sat perhaps 100 times, sometimes under the chairmanship of this Royal Highness, at others under Cardinal Manning or the Lord Mayor. I took a lively interest in the matter, chiefly from humane motives, partly also because I had at the request of the editor of the Contemporary, published a scheme for doing away with the "slums" of London. My plan was briefly to confiscate the funds of the Leather-sellers, Arrow-makers, Cordwainers, Fishmongers and other medieval guilds, representing a value of 8 millions sterling, and with the money erect 500 Peabody Buildings, to accommodate 250,000 of the 'slum' population at rents not exceeding 18 pence per week. The wealth of these Guilds arises from pious donations given expressly in the Middle Ages to support widows and orphans of the respective guilds, or to have prayers offered for the deceased members, neither of which objects is kept in view by the present corporations, which revel on turtle and champagne.

Nothing whatever was done in the matter, beyond publishing laudatory articles in the morning papers about the conduct of the Prince of Wales, whenever he attended the Committee. Five years have elapsed, and the Rotherhithe report just issued shews that matters are getting worse. Professor Huxley observed in 1885, that a large portion of the inhabitants of London live in a worse condition that any negro tribes of West Africa. Such an assertion is fully borne out by the report before me, which says:

"The parish contains 40,000 inhabitants in the worst quarter of London, for whom there is but one medical officer and one inspector of nuisances. The latter has not made any systematic inspection of houses nor kept any record of complaints made to him.

"Most of the dwellings have no supply of water, and their sanitary condition is disgusting. We found defective roofs, walls tumbling to pieces, yards unpaved, sinks untrapped, no dust-bins, but accumulations of filth. The parochial authorities refuse to exercise the power that they hold by Act of Parliament to compel the landlords to provide water supply and make the houses suitable for habitation. The parish contains 17 miles of streets and 6,000 houses."

How long is this state of things to go on? Here, in the richest city ever known in the history of mankind, where wealth accumulates over 30 millions sterling per annum, we find 300,000 human beings being crowded into filthy dens, where you would not keep a horse or a dog. It is a cruel sarcasm on the enlightened spirit of the age, that England spends £100,000 in printing Bibles for African negroes, and allows such a large number of people in London to drag out lives of misery and squalor. You blame the wretched man or woman who spends a part of the weekly earnings in the gin palace, but if you follow these poor people to their dreadful "homes" you would not wonder that they seek some recreation outside the dismal tenements which they occupy.

There is no house-property in London gives such large returns, so high a rental, as the "slums." The worst houses, as the report says, are often the property of vestrymen, who get 15 and 20 per cent per annum by way of rental. It is not uncommon for the poor tenants to pay three or four shillings a week for a single room, say £10 a year. The vestrymen are not going to condemn their own houses as unhealthy. Thus the poor have no remedy, no protectors. It was so in Paris before 1789. Absit omen.

CURUMALAN COMPANY.

Report for the year ending March 31, 1889.

Gentlemen,—

The general balance and Profit and Loss account for the year ending March 31, 1889, which we now present to the shareholders, shows a flattering state of prosperity and advancement.

It may be said that the period of installation, which has been long and difficult in relation to the magnitude of the undertaking, has passed, and that the Company now enters upon the second phase of its commercial life, namely, the advantageous exploitation of its resources and the realization of its properties. This observation refers especially to the colonies, whose gains realizable in the first years of their formation are naturally small and out of proportion to the capital necessarily invested in them.

The past year has been relatively prosperous for the Colonies; the crops, although damaged by the exceptional frosts of November, 1888, were on the whole above the average, and the prices obtained for them, and which it is hoped will continue, were excellent.

The prosperity of the colonists reflects directly upon the Company, and will result in a speedy reduction of the debts for advances in the Account Current and which form the principal part of the item "various debtors" in the credit column of the General Balance sheet.

The demand for lands for cultivation increases daily. Whilst it was formerly necessary to bring the colonist, allot him a house, animals, tools and maintenance for himself and family until his affairs were in order, now those who ask land for agriculture bring the necessary capital and other elements, and scarcely need any help from the company.

The Mill at Pigue has given good results during its first year of working, and there is every reason to believe that next year's gains will be greater.

The building of the mill and granary at Sauce Corte, of greater capacity than those of Pigue, is being actively proceeded with, and it is expected that they will be ready to work by next harvest time. The rainy season just passed has considerably delayed these works.

The formation of the villages (pueblos) of "Arroyo Corto", "Sauce Corto" and "Pigue" progresses swiftly, valuable private buildings having been raised in each of them and especially the last named. These villages are destined to become, at an early date, important centres of population with proper life and active movement. "Sauce Corto" has recently been made the head district (partido) under the name of "Coronel Suarez".

VALUE OF THE PROPERTY.

On the credit side of the balance sheet properties of the Company figure for	$4,755,976
Deducting the value of lands sold	306,537
We get as value of the Company's properties	$4,359,439

Nevertheless, on account of the immense increase in the value of land, caused in general by the progress of the country, and in particular by the colonization of part of our lands, the real and effective value of the property, without including the existing live stock, may be calculated at not less than $10,000,000 gold, or say £2,000,000 sterling. Recent sales of neighbouring lands, inferior in quality and situation to those of Curumalán, confirm this calculation.

ESTANCIA.

The mild weather and the consequent abundance of pasture during the past year have contributed greatly to the excellent results obtained in stock. The increase has been good and the prices both for stock sold and for the wool have exceeded those of previous years.

The fencing in of the land, rendered necessary by the increase of stock, is being actively prosecuted. At present there are over 900 kilometres of wire fencing, which are kept in good condition, as also are all the buildings, sheds, barns, etc.

LOAN

Through Messrs. S. B. Hale and Co., there has been negociated in London a loan of £500,000 in the form of Debentures bearing interest at 7 per cent per annum on favorable conditions. The half-yearly interest is paid with great regularity.

FINANCIAL SITUATION

The building of the mill at Sauce Corto, the new wire fencing, buildings, and the improvements in camp lands intended for stock breeding, will exact a considerable invertion of capital during the approaching year, which will only be partly furnished by the company's own resources. As before, these ressources will be supplemented by those of the firm of Mr. Edward Casey, the necessary funds being advanced in account current.

DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS.

The Profit and Loss Account, after deducting all the working expenses, interest on loan, etc. etc., gives a net balance of	$709,650.86

This has been distributed as follows:—

Dividend of 17 o/o on 4,000 shares of $1,000	$680,000.00
Reserve fund	25,000.00
Balance carried forward	4,650.86
	$709,650.86

LIVE STOCK.

Below will be found a catalogue of the live stock on the Estancia March 31, 1889, with the respective valuation of each class. By this it will be seen that the prices marked are low enough, considering the last sales realized and the offers of purchase that have been received.

Mails.

London, May 17,

There was a large attendance in the House of Commons yesterday, when Mr. Bradlaugh brought on his motion with reference to the Treasury minute on the commutation of perpetual pensions. This minute lays down a basis of 27 years' purchase, and this Mr. Bradlaugh contended, was too high, and that the Treasury had not exercised proper care in regard to pensions. Mr. Hanbury, in seconding, contended that the Government proposals really gave all the advantage to the sinecurists, or at least, the Nelsons and the Nell Gwynnes were to have the same pay. The Chancellor of the Exchequer was put up to reply for the Government, and he urged that the 27 years was the maximum rate, but would certainly not be applicable to all cases. The passing of the motion would prevent the Government dealing with the descendants of Nelson and Rodney as liberally as they had done with others less deserving, and this they wanted to avoid. Mr. Gladstone supported the motion, which was negatived by 264 against 205. The remainder of the sitting was devoted to the customs and Inland Revenue Bill.

The Parnell Commission held its eighty-first sitting yesterday, but the evidence was not of a very startling character, the whole of the sitting being occupied with the evidence of two Woodford Nationalists and the parish priest of Miltown-Malbay. Mr. Roche, one of these witnesses, was closely questioned by the Attorney-General, and said he considered that a tenant was legally justified in offering resistance when turned out of a house which he had been a life-time in building, and thrown on the roadside without shelter for himself and family, and until this was actually attempted the tenant did nothing. Father White entirely contradicted the most important portion of the boycotting tale of Mrs. Connell, one of the Times witnesses, and his evidence had not concluded when the Court adjourned.

By the death to-day of the Earl of Malmesbury there has been removed a once conspicuous figure in the political world. His lordship is succeeded by his nephew, who was born in 1842.

Lady Sandhurst has lost her case on appeal, the Court deciding that her ladyship, being a woman, is not eligible to sit on the London County Council, and that votes given her were therefore thrown away. Further, it is held that Mr. Beresford-Hope is entitled to the seat. Two other seats are affected by this decision, and the holders of them—both well-known ladies—propose to at once call meetings of their constituents with a view to their resignation, or, at least, abstention from voting.

Bow-street Police Court was crowded yesterday to hear the charges against persons found at the Adelphi Club when the raid was made upon it last Saturday night. Ten principal defendants were charged with keeping a common gaming-house, and thirty-six were charged with using the premises. The prosecution took a different course from that originally anticipated, and called several of the minor defendants to prove the case against the principals, it being understood that those who thus gave evidence would be discharged, the Crown only aiming at convictions against the ten persons who, it was alleged, are at the head of the club. A Scotch gentleman made a strong appeal to the Court for his discharge, as he had been in the club only once or twice when arrested, and the magistrate complied with the request, smilingly remarking that Scotchmen coming to London should bring with them their habitual caution. The cases were then adjourned for a week, when other defendants will be called to give evidence.

Now that the Duke of Edinburgh has narrowly escaped being killed through the shocking state of the harbour at Malta, which is described as being but little better than a cesspool, possibly some measures may be taken to put the harbour of this important British naval station into a better sanitary condition. If it be beyond the power of modern sanitary science to improve the state of affairs, is there any reason why her Majesty's ships should remain there during the hot summer months?

The authorities in Dublin are in great difficulty in regard to the case of leprosy which has occurred in that city. The sufferer has been a soldier, but the War Office authorities decline to undertake his removal to India, or to any place where there are hospitals for leprosy, and the steamship companies all refuse to carry him as a passenger. At present he is in the House of Industry Hospital, and the fear is that he will have to be put out from there for fear of spreading the disease. The matter is a serious one, and it is to be hoped the authorities will deal with it in a manner compatible with the comfort of the patient and the safety of the public.

Railway Items.

ENGINEER AGOSTINI'S REPORT ON THE ANDINE RAILWAY—HIS CONCLUSIONS—A FEW DETAILS ABOUT THE GUERRICO CONCESSION—THE CENTRAL NORTHERN RAILWAY.

Yesterday, an important report was received in the Engineers' Department from Mr. Agostini, on the Andine Railway. As the report is somewhat long we shall summarise Mr. A's conclusions, which are as follow:

1st—The line should be immediately repaired and new rails laid.

2nd—The level of earthworks should be raised in certain parts (specified in the report), and more attention should be paid to the waterways.

3rd—The number of gangers should be increased to carry out the more urgent repairs.

4th—Other sidings should be built to facilitate shunting.

5th—The bridges should be repaired, and those which are at present being thrown across the Arroyos Costadera and Chacan should be completed as soon as possible.

6th—The intermediate stations should be repaired at once.

7th—A building should be erected for the employees and a deposit for goods, at Villa Maria, and the station at Villa Mercedes should be enlarged.

8th—The number of carriages and waggons should be doubled.

9th—A uniform system of coupling should be adopted.

10th—The telegraph service should be improved.

Such are Mr. Agostini's conclusions. If the Audine Railway does not improve, it won't be for want of wholesome advice, for its counsellors are now three: the Board of Public Works, the Engineers' Department, and the N. R. Board. We were going to add "and the travelling public", but it appears the public voice is not much listened to up country.

In regard to the notice we took yesterday of Messrs. Guerrico & Co. having applied to Congress for railway privileges, the following details will be found of interest. The line, which would be of broad gauge, would start from Rufino on the Pacific Railway, a little beyond Orellanos Station, and terminate in Belle Ville on the Central Argentine. The kilometric cost would be $22,000 gold, on which a guarantee of 5 per cent is asked for 20 years. All State lands required for the line would be ceded gratis, and the applicants would be authorized to make such junctions as they might deem convenient, and to lay, if necessary, a double track.

Government has appointed Messrs. Beransini and Slatree to make out the inventory of the Central Northern, Messrs. Hume's purchase, which has been transferred to a company formed in London.

Both Inspector Magendie and Mr Hill, manager of the Pacific Railway, in their letters to Dr. Araoz, trace the derailment of the 6th inst. at Soler to the shaky condition of the line.

The traffic returns for last month of that modest little concern the Primer Entre-Riano were: Gross returns, $1,426; working expenses, $947. Net earnings, $479. The kilometrage run in the same month amounted to 3,681.

Our La Plata exchanges yesterday reported the approval of an ad referendum contract with Messrs. C. Chasmissy and Co. for the construction of a railway from San Clemente through Lavalle, Alvear and Bolivar, to the western limit of the province. This line is to be called the Inter-colonial Railway. The contract has yet to go before the legislature.

One of our much esteemed Montevidean colleagues publishes the following:—

"We learn upon indisputable authority that Baring Brothers take the Railway bonds, amounting to 15,000,000 dollars, firm. We congratulate the Government warmly on this great triumph for Uruguay credit."

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The great news of yesterday was that the police have got to the bottom of the Cordoba bank-notes forgery business. The Chief of Police brought the whole force of his department to the task, and has unearthed the gang of forgers. The police are pretty sure that the total extent of the forgery is not more than $400,000: but this is rather a startling amount, and the largest forgery ever committed in the country. Several of the gang have escaped, owing to some of our colleagues having imprudently given the names of those arrested in Dr. Navarro Viola's quinta ten days ago. Yesterday there was the usual scene of conversion at the National Bank. One good bit of news is that the reported forgery of Entre-Riano Bank notes is a "bola." These notes are very superior to the old Cordoba Bank notes, and much more difficult to imitate with any chance of success.

The freshest thing in the auctioneering advertisement line passed our office yesterday about tea-without-milk hour: Half a dozen open carriages with Mr. Infanta Miranda's flags waving from them, and in the first two the most infamous brass band we have heard since the last German band we had to listen to (and survive) on our last visit to Brighton. It is to be hoped this musical system of advertising will not spread.

Faust had to be postponed last night at the Politeama, but will be given to-night.

The South is now getting more attention from Government and the public every day, and booming time is not far off. Engineer Ramon Blanco has been named by the Board of Public Works to accompany the provincial engineers to the South, and see about hydraulic works at Bahia Blanca, San Blas, Patagones, etc. Bravo!

We strongly recommend those holding property in the Formosa and Chaco Territories to procure the latest map of those important parts of the Republic, published by Mr. J. Ruland of 2487 Calle Florida, and on sale at Nolto's book-store in Calle Cangallo. It is an excellent map.

The City Improvement Board have forwarded to the Home Minister the reply of Messrs. Bateman and Co. to Dr. Davison's charges in the Prensa. The public have already read this reply, and are waiting for that to the Doctor's proposal that an Investigating Committee should be named to tell which side "tiene razon".

The London papers to hand show that the police there are dealing vigorously with aristocratic gamblers. The Field and Adelphi Clubs were entered and hauls made of Earls, and Honourables, and dishonourables. Even a canny Scotchman was caught in the net; and the magistrate expressed his surprise, and jokingly let Sandy off "scot"-free, with a caution not to leave his national caution behind him the next time he came to London. Another lively topic in England now is Water Gas. At the last meeting of the Company formed for working it, the Chairman said they "intended to do away with the use of solid fuel". The new gas claims to be far more than equal to the old for heating and lighting.

The Corporation met on Monday and had a brisk talk over the proposed new Loan. Aldermen Diaz, Quesada and Madero said the city finances were in a prodigious mess, and it would be better to postpone the subject. This was done. An enterprising citizen who asked for permission to make a fortune by disfiguring the houses at street corners with advertizement boards was told to go and ask the owners of the houses.

The Central Tramway is not treating the public fairly by keeping the last car from the Cafe de Paris at midnight till the performance at the National Theatre is over. On Monday night a subscriber and ten other gentlemen had to sit in this car from a quarter to 12 to a quarter to 1, waiting for the theatre people. This should not be allowed. Let the ordinary last car keep to its advertized time, and extra cars be put on for the theatres. Tramway matters badly require a Board of Inspection such as that for the National Railways.

The owner of the grocery burned down the other night in Calle Pavon has gone raving mad owing to his loss. Poor man. Another fire took place in a private house in Calle Cochabamba last night, and all the furniture, a lot of jewels and $4000 in notes were destroyed. What gross imprudence to keep such a sum of money in the house, with so many banks in the town.

The British Residents' Benevolent Fund at Montevideo appears to be getting on nicely. The proposal to put boxes in the river steamers and appeal to public charity is very properly scouted.

We deeply sympathise with Mr. Frank Brown, the popular circus empresario, on the death of his wife, which took place on Sunday night in La Plata. It will be remembered that the poor lady, known in the circus as Miss Addie, fell from her horse and broke her arm a night or two before the Company sailed for Rio, and she had to remain behind.

President Tajes is to step into the late General Santos's shoes in the Captain General line. A Bill for his promotion will be laid before the Mount Chambers next week.

Colonel Santa Cruz's carriage bowled over an old fellow at the corner of Corrientes and Esmeralda on Monday evening. The passers-by thought he was booked for the Chacarita next morning, but he was n't. At the Comisaria he declared that he was not hurt, and begged that the coachman should not be fined. The Jehu then offered him some money; which he indignantly refused, threatening to thrash his Whipship for daring to so insult him. The crowd cheered the plucky and generous old chap to the echo. He is an Italian named Bocca.

The new Immigrants' Hotel in this city is to have room for ten thousand people. Judging from the present influx from Europe it will not be one bit too large. Half Italy may be expected here in the next ten years.

General Donovan, Governor of the Chaco, is expected here early next month. Everything in his Territory shows great progress, especially colonization, the increase in which is described as surprising. The new railways are being surveyed very fast A boom in the Chaco looks within measurable distance, as the grand old man would say.

There is a laughable question now under discussion in police quarters. It appears that some ultra-fashionably inclined Commissaries have ordered their "oficiales" to provide themselves with black swallow-tail coats for state occasions, and the poor men, who have never donned such a garment in their lives, protest loudly against being put to such an expense when they can barely keep body and soul together on their small salaries. They say that they cannot even afford to hire a swallow-tail for the state occasions in question. This affair has a strong smack of the ridiculous, and no doubt the Chief will see fit to sit on it.

Very distressing news has come from Asuncion. Dr. Forster, founder of the "Nueva Germania" colony at San Bernardino, has committed suicide. He was in embarrassed circumstances; hence the fatal act.

The river Parana is reported going in for a strong bullish movement. At Corrientes the rise in the waters is described as "asombroso"; but no damage done as yet.

More Aldermanic luck. Alderman Piera, who stood up for those sanguinary sports, cockfighting and pigeon shooting, in the Town Council the other day, won the $50,000 gold prize ($750,000 nats) in the Caridad Lottery on Saturday last. With this little windfall he will be able to enjoy a lot of cockfighting anywhere outside the capital.

We see that a man has been arrested in the Mount for threatening to shoot an apothecary. This is a monstrous offence. Shoot anybody else; but let apothecaries and editors live in peace, as they are indispensable in this part of the earth.

German professors are proverbially absent-minded, but none of them more than Professor Dusel, of Bonn. He noticed, one day, his wife placing a large bouquet on his desk. "What does this mean?" he asked. "Why, this is the anniversary of your marriage," replied Mrs Dusel. "Ach! is that so? Well, let me know when yours comes round, and I'll reciprocate."

The old story from Santa Fe province. State school teachers not paid for three months, and as thin as walking-sticks, through living on air for ninety days. Succi and Tanner are the only men who could feel comfortable as Santa Fe school-teachers. Butchers and bakers' bills have no terrors for them.

School matters appear to be a trifle awry in B. A. province also. The Board of Education reports a deficit in its coffers for the month of May of $91,000.

The traders of that venerable town Azul are about to give it and themselves a push up in the world by starting a bank with three millions of capital.

The waiter inferred that the guest had taken a little something before supper, from the mere fact of his ordering 'tied fraters and chork pops."

The San Nicolas papers say that Good Templars, a Blue Ribbon army, and other aids to temperance are just now sorely wanted in that quarter, where a good portion of the population is so intemperate that the daily arrest of a dozen or more drunkards is the rule. The infamous quality of the liquids imbibed has perhaps as much to do with this lamentable state of things in such a small place as the wish to imbibe too much.

A couple of richly dressed swell mob women went into the ladies' room of a La Plata Hotel the other day, tackled a sumptuous lunch, paid for it and departed. They took away with them, however, under their velvet and fur mantles, 25 nats. worth of silver ware from the tables.

The following story about the present Premier of England is to his credit: "It was a lucky hour for Miss Alderson, daughter of the late Baron Alderson, that in which she first attracted the attention of Lord Robert Cecil, now Marquis of Salisbury and Premier, but in those days a very poor and hard-working younger son. Of course all the noble Cecils were dead against the marriage; but Robert Cecil was then, as he is now, a very obstinate man, and one who likes to have his own way, so he braved the wrath of his family and took to his bosom the lady of his choice. Baron Alderson was a very eccentric man, and there are many curious stories about his odd behaviour on the Bench. On one occasion at York he sentenced an old man of seventy-five to fifteen years' penal servitude; but just as the aged felon had left the dock, Alderson had him called back, and leaning forward addressed him with the greatest urbanity as follows: "I beg your pardon but I have just sentenced you to fifteen years' penal servitude. Now, I am sorry to say, that for your offence I find by the Act of Parliament I cannot sentence you to less than twenty, but you need not after all mind that, as in either case it would be quite sure to embrace the remainder of your life!"

In Montevideo they have now also a little forged money affair on hand, just to keep Buenos Ayres company. Tons of false twenty-cent pieces are circulating there. This is not so bad as forged $50 notes.

A morning colleague gives a sickening description of the "Atorrante Colony" near the Corrales, where all members of this Lost Tribe seem to have settled down. They'll soon "settle" themselves if it be true that they feed on the animals that drop dead from fatigue and disease while being driven to market.

The new stained-glass windows in the central nave of the Cathedral are very nice and artistic and a great improvement to the sacred edifice.

There'll be a pretty big boom in the Pampa Territory if the mines recently discovered turn up trumps, which they probably will. Two parties have applied for leave to begin work near the Sepulveda mines, on some government land. They say the present cost of putting up the machinery and settling the families of the miners will much exceed the present value of the land they ask for. Whether it does or not, they should be allowed to fire away, as it will give an impulse to the barren desert in question, if the mines prove valuable.

The winner of the Oaks, L'Abbesse de Jouarre, last year belonged to Lord Randolph Churchill; we are not certain whether he did not sell her during the winter to Col. North. If, however, the great little Randy has kept her, he has brought his filly to a better market than his political pigs.

Worthy of imitation. A nice old gentleman who refuses to give his name calls the first week in every month at the School Board in Piedad Parish and lodges ten dollars to buy clothes for any poor child attending the parish school who may require them. There are lots of nice old gentlemen, and nice young ones too, who could afford without feeling it to imitate the charity of the n. o. g. in question.

A letter from Paris says that the Argentines there attract great attention, for three reasons the prodigious lot of money they spend, the beauty of their wives and daughters, and the gift they seem to have of being in two places at the same time, like Sir Boyle Roche's bird.

BRITISH IMMIGRATION.

Mr. Editor,

I, like your "five years subscriber,' have read with interest the letters that have appeared in your paper from time to time upon this subject, and am of the opinion that they are all wide of the mark of the cause of the non-success, or rather non-satisfaction, of the English-speaking race; even a "five years subscriber" has omitted a vital point. It is unfortunately too true, his statement of the living of the Italian in his own country, and I have no doubt that a "five years subscriber" has had the pleasure when travelling by diligence through that country of seeing the industrious Italian throw down his tools when at work, at the approach of a diligence, and come out of a vineyard to beg of the Inglese. He truly says they would live where an Englishman would starve; and in this country they have a great advantage over the English emigrant in regard to language. This is seen every day at the Immigrants' Home, hotel, or whatever that foul den is called. There every attention is given to the Italian or any of the Latin-speaking races. This is easy to account for, as the officials are nearly all ignorant of the English language. There is one gentleman in the Information Office who speaks English imperfectly, and he is the only official who vouches the poor immigrant a civil word, if the latter is of the English-speaking race. Being cooped up on board ship for a month with 1,200 of these poor immigrants I took great interest in some of the families and had a fair amount of experience both on shipboard and after they landed; therefore I can vouch for what I say, when I say that the Italian is given the chance to go to work before the English; this certainly is not fair; they all ought to have equal chance.

The principal reason of discontent is to be found in the base and false literature circulated by the Argentine Officials at 22 Great George St. Westminster; they and their Agents advertize in the leading newspapers, for immigrants to this Heaven on Earth, according to their statements, and when the unfortunate sends to the above office, he receives a map of the country and other papers, which do not contain one word of truth, which the immigrant finds to his sorrow when he lands. Here are one or two items: "Wages, gardeners £20 per month, Coachmen £10 with everything found, carpenters constant work at 12 shillings and six pence per day, miners 14 shillings per diem. Navvies, 7/6 with board and lodging, and every other trade in proportion." Want of employment at home and its attendant evils, and the glowing colours given of this Eldorado induce men to break up their little homes and come here vainly searching for a Will o' the Wisp. Can you, Mr. Editor, or any of your readers blame honest men, though e'er so poor, for trying to better their condition, or be surprised at their discontent when they find they have been grossly imposed upon, the rate of wage they receive here being nearer to as many depreciated dollars than pounds. One instance, a gardener who came out with me, thinking he would get work at from £10 to £20, was glad to get work at 20 nats. If the Argentine Emigration Officials are anxious to obtain a good name, let them burn all the literature they now circulate, and circulate only what is truth, then they will not be overdone with immigrants, and those who come will cease to grumble.

Yours faithfully,
W. Proctor.

ROBERT ELSMERE.

In some of the late issues of the Standard I observed flattering mention of the above work in connexion with a review written by Mr. Gladstone upon it. I do not intend to read either the book or the review, because I understand Robert Elsmere is an infamous work. The whole plot of the story is framed with the deliberate purpose of ridiculing the fundamental doctrine of Christianity, and the clergy of the Church of England have recommended that no respectable family allow it into their house. I do not suppose that the Roman Catholic Church will take any notice of it, as any book hostile to Christian dogmas is prohibited, without any special decree.

But it is a significant fact that 45,000 copies of this book were sold in three months after its appearance, and that the authoress is niece of the lamented essayist, Matthew Arnold. The right of private judgment claimed by Protestants entitles them to read such a book, whether their clergy dissapprove of it or not. On this point, therefore, Mr. Gladstone may be strictly within his right: he may read the anthems at Hawarden church on Sunday morning, and next day lecture on Robert Elsmere.

Nevertheless the effect of such a book, in heaping all manner of ridicule upon the Church of England, is baneful in the extreme. "Who cares", says Robert Elsmere, "what an Anglican clergyman believes now-a-days, if he goes through his antics properly?" We do care, and nobody more than Roman Catholics. If you could restore England to the Old Faith by wiping out the present system well and good, but you cannot. Only a small percentage of the men and women who grow tired of Anglicanism become Roman Catholics; the great majority discard all forms of Christianity, and enrol themselves Agnostics.

The indifference of the people of England to what is called their national Church is a very sad feature. Anglicanism is apparently on its last legs, and the Salvation Army coming more and more into vogue. The bulk of the population stands aloof, regarding the Salvationists as fanatics of a dangerous character. In such a conjuncture the country is exposed to the risk of finding itself like Japan seven years ago, offering a reward for the best religion. Mormonism has made considerable progress in parts of England and Scotland, a great conference of Elders having recently taken place at Glasgow, and some hundreds of Lancashire people left last year for Utah. It is true that ever since the Reformation England has been the Mother of countless sects, all the direct result of private judgment; but these sects had many redeeming points, such as the sincerity of Bunyan and Wesley, the philanthropy of Penn, the heroism of the Covenanters.

We are now arrived at quite an opposite crisis, a negation of religion. Men seem disposed to deny everything that is abstract, except mathematical principles. This is the New Gospel, according to Robert Elsmere. If protestants will read such books they are simply sowing the seeds of infidelity in their own minds. As to Roman Catholics, I am sure that whatever ridicules Christianity will be so offensive to their minds that they will regard it as a blast from the infernal regions.

THE AMERICAN TROTTING HORSE

To the Editor of the Standard.

Dear Sir,

Perhaps the enclosed letter addressed to your London "tocayo" may be interesting to your horse-loving readers, especially as we have a sire in the country that traces back on both sides through the great Eclipse to the Darley Arabian. I refer to a beautiful black horse called Irish Birdcatcher, standing in the stables 51 San Martin. I heard he belongs to Mr. Ralph Lett.

Yours truly,
Clare

"To the Editor of the Standard.

"Sir,

"Your correspondent, Mr Black, has done justice to the English horse Mambrino as being the sire of Messenger, from whom so many excellent American trotting horses have descended. It may be interesting to call attention to English Mambrino's ancestor, the Darley Arabian, from whom sprang alike the wonderful Eclipse and the very best of the American trotters.

The Darley Arabian was bred in the deserts of Palmyra, and purchased by Mr. Darley, a merchant abroad (in the reign of Queen Anne, who presented him to his brother, Mr. John B. Darnley, of Buttercombe (now called Aldby Park). The horse's opportunities at the stud were very limited, and yet he was the sire of Bartlett's Childers, the sire of Squirt, sire of Marske, sire of Eclipse. The Darley Arabian was also the sire of the famous Flying Childers (foaled in 1714), sire of Blaze, sire of Samson (the strongest horse that ever raced before or since his time, and pre-eminent also if regarded as hunter or hack). Sampson was the sire of Engineer, sire of English Mambrino (the trotter race-horse), sire of Messenger, who was sent to the United States before 1790. Messenger (like his sire Mambrino) possessed great trotting action, which he transmitted to his descendants, and he was the ancestor of the most wonderful family of trotters ever seen, including Bush Messenger, Hambletonian, American, Mambrino, Rysdyk, Hambletonian, and Mambrino Chief, and later on Alexander, Abdalla, and the great Almont. The latter boasts of twenty sons and daughters with records from two-thirty and two-twenty downwards, and he traces back through his dam (as well as sire) to the Darley Arabian, and to the Godolphin Arabian through his grand-dam. In 1883, when 18 years old, Almont was thought to be the best horse in Kentucky.

Our breed owes its excellence to the Arabs and Barbs centred in Eclipse, who was bred in and in to them with (as is usual in such cases) marvellous success, and even nowadays exceptional success can generally be traced all the way back to Eclipse, and through him to the Darley Arabian.

To return to the subject of trotting. The Darley Arabian (of whom the writer has a coloured print) shows immense quality, length and symmetry, with deep and (unlike so many Arabs) very oblique shoulders. Mambrino also had remarkable obliquity and depth of shoulder, looking "all forehand", and as being a grand horse before and a pony behind. I have an impression that Mambrino had Orville blood in him. If so, that family is characterized by very fine shoulders.

The writer has sought to show how much both we and the Americans owe to the Darley Arabian; also to show with what tenacity both the race-horse and trotting excellences of the last century have descended to our own times—a strong argument, or rather fact, in favour of the heredity principle.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. Taunton.

CROPS IN GREAT BRITAIN.

An English correspondent writes to us under date May 11:—

"Until the 2nd of May we had a cold, rainy spring. Then followed a week of glorious weather, sunny and unusually warm for the period of the season. Crops grew with extraordinary rapidity, and the country speedily assumed a beauty rare in the springs of these degenerate days. Unfortunately we now have a return of dull and cold weather, with some rain. If this weather last long, it must do a great deal of harm. At present, however, the crops on the farm, the fruit plantation, and in the hop-garden alike are looking extraordinarily well. This may seem strange after what has been said of the ungenial character of the spring except for a single week; but it is accounted for, in a great measure, by the remarkable immunity from sharp frosts which we have enjoyed, while with east wind we have been very little troubled. Crops will stand a good deal of rain if there is no frost or very cold wind; and certainly the grain crops are strong, thick and healthy as a rule, while the promise of the hay crop is splendid. All that we need is plenty of sunshine to raise our hopes of a great harvest higher than they have been for many years".

Dr. J. Collis Browne's
CHLORODYNE.
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhoea, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhoea and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhoea, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

Caution.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr J Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to,—See "The Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1 1/2d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d,. and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Caution.—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

EXPLORATION & MANUFACTORY OF ARGENTINE WOODS.

Approved by decree of the National Goverement dated 30th March 1889.

Authorized Capital $5,000000, divided into 5 series of 10 000 shares of $100 each

Payments 10 per cent every 3 months, like a Savings Bank.

When the 1st series is subscribed, the 4 remaining series will be offered to the public up to the 5th of June next.

The Society was started by 100 founders amongst them being 55 timber merchants of Buenos Ayres, La Plata, Rosario, San Nicolas and Montevideo, all skilled in the trade.

This is the most important and indispensable Industrial Undertaking of the country, and the one which offers the largest prospect of profit to its shareholders, from the opportunities it possesses of obtaining concessions and purchasing forests, of the richest and strongest woods requiring only the hand of the practical and scientific man and the power of capital to create the means of transport and economical manufacture, sales being sure, remunerative and easy in this Republic, as well as in Uruguay and Europe, in consequence of the natural requirements of Industry and Building. No business man or capitalist should delay subscribing, for his own and his country's sake, freeing us from the enormous annual tax of $12,000,000 now paid by us to foreigners for woods inferior to the Argentine.

There were no new features in the stock market to-day. Stocks were more or less at the same level as yesterday, and bulls are now prophesying a further flare-up and bears awaiting the inevitable reaction without any sign that either side is making any defined attempt to bring about the fulfilment of their desires. Banco Nacional shares kept steady at 266 for end of month and end July, there being still a good many buyers for latter date, which causes prices to be maintained. Cedulas were very quiet, and the Provincial series rather weak. Pobladores Railway, which opened at 68, ran up to 71, then fell away under a press of sellers to 66. Sud Americano shares kept steady at 109 and 108 Pobladora shares kept firm in the neighbourhood of 190. The Telegraphic-Telephonic Company's Shares boomed up from 190 to 225 and closed at 210. Previsora were rather neglected, but firm at 175. Operations in Credito Real for end of month were brisk, 2,350 shares being disposed of, opening at 157½, rising to 158½ and closing at 157½. Nothing was done in La Plata Moles. Bolsa Bank improved to 68 for cash and 69 for end of month. Flores Constructores and Credito Nacional were firm, and Constructors kept up at 137 for cash and 137½ for end of month, the scrip changing hands at 94, and obligations at 14½.

The Lamport and Holt s.s. Leibnitz landed, on May 9th at Southampton, £280,000 sig brought from the Plate. The London papers call attention to the constant arrivals of gold from the Plate and speak in better terms of the country and its prospects than last year when all the gold in London was being shipped to B. Ayres.

The stoppage of the gold speculation by Minister Varela, and the publication in England of his proposed financial reforms seems to have had a good effect in the London market, as since then all Argentine stocks have improved and particularly the shares of the English Bank and the London and River Plate Bank. This great advance in Argentine stocks in London does not correspond with the remarks of the Nacional, Diario and Nacion on Mr. Varela's 4 months' administration of the Hacienda.

The receipts of the Central Argentine R. R. for last year show an increase of £130,000 over those of the previous year.

It was announced on 'Change that a London Syndicate has purchased 20,000 shares Obras Publicas Montevideo at 114. This is splendid news for that market.

Owing to the great demand for concrete flag-stones to make "veredas," the supply has fallen far short of the demand, and much work is brought to a stand-still, as the manufactories cannot make them fast enough. Along the Flores road half the workmen on the "veredas" are at a stand still for the want of material.

We have some beautiful samples of Argentine cotton from Mr. Hardy's plantation in the Gran Chaco. The government ought to buy it all up and send it to the Paris Exhibition. Are there any cotton gins in Buenos Ayres? Many years ago we had some, but they went to Corrientes and Paraguay and we never heard of them since.

The new Municipal Loan will be in Nat. Cedulas in paper and not in gold as at first rumoured. We spoke to-day with one of the financial committee municipals, and he informed us that it was never intended to borrow gold cedulas, as the Municipality has nothing to pay in gold and only pays in paper. This may interest holders of National gold cedulas.

Mr Netterville, who has recently arrived from Europe, was welcomed. He comes to see the country with a view to investing in lands. Mr. William Mooney, estanciero, was also welcomed.

At the second hour National Bank shares opened as low as 265, but this low rate could not be maintained, as there was an avalanche of brokers to buy at that price and 266 was soon reached, at which the quotation closed between buyers and sellers; for end of July, only a small business was done at same rate. The dubious point as to whether the syndicate will be able to withdraw 50,000 shares this month was much discussed, and it was admitted generally that if the money is forthcoming shares will go to 280 at least, as there will be a tremendous corner, not lessened by the fact that last month the bears had to borrow 5,000 shares to squeeze themselves over the liquidation. Constructors changed hands briskly at 137 for cash and end of month, which shews a slight decline. All other stocks were steady, particularly Pobladores Scrip which opened at 65½, ran up to 68½ and closed at 66½. Some fully paid up shares changed hands at 139, also fully paid up shares of Madero Port at 130. A few La Plata Moles were done for end of month at 168.

Exchange was weaker to-day, though rates are quoted about the same, 47¼d 4.96½ to 4.97 francs Paris.

The gold premium boomed up to 161½ to-day, closing at 161.40 buyers. It is more than probable that the advance is due to the heavy remittances that have to be made for the ½ year.

The following is a summary of operations effected this evening at the second ring:—

The Biekert Brewery Company, formed in London, of which Mr. Chevallier Boutell is the representative here, have applied for approval of statutes. The capital of this very promising company is £600,000; and the shareholders may expect pretty fat dividends, as nothing pays better than Beer in this country.

The "Sembradora Nacional" Company has also applied for approval of statutes. Capital a round million dollars.

The National Bank sold to-day $150,402 gold at 160 and 160.80.

The Finance Minister has ordered payment to the "Fabrica Santa Elena" of the sum of $14,642, bounty on meat and meat extract recently exported.

Governor Paz laid before the Provincial Chambers yesterday two projects which will no doubt be passed "nem. con." The first is to authorize the Executive to make a general census of the Province for the year 1890, and the second to divide the partido Nueve de Julio into two partidos, one to be called as formerly Nueve de Julio and the other Pehuajo. The distance between the towns of Nueve de Julio and Pehuajo, some 30 leagues, has necessitated this step, which will be a great boon for the residents of the latter district.

We see by Chilian advices that the Chilian Government has accepted the terms offered by the Deutsche Bank and the eminent banker Mendelsohn to take the £1,500,000 loan of 4½ p.c. interest and 1½ o/o amortization at 99½ firm.

With regard to Mr. Eastman's great auction at Hurlingham on Sunday last, a correspondent writes as follows:—

"Dear Standard,—

"You have done the Rosario Railway an injustice in accusing them of being responsible for the delay in starting the special train for the auction at Hurlingham on Sunday. Hurlingham is on the Pacific line, between Caseros and Muñiz.

"A clerical error has also crept into your issue of Sunday. The proposition of N. Quirno and Co. to canalize the Rio de las Conchas, which passes close to the land sold on Sunday, and not the "Rio Anchas," a name that has puzzled several people to locate.

"Sunday's auction was hardly well attended, as over 200 people left the station, not caring to wait for the special train an indefinite length of time. Had they gone, the prices realized would have been very considerably improved, and it seems probable that when the auction of the remainder in unsold comes off, prices will show a decided advance on those of Sunday last.

"HURLINGHAM."

The Cordova notes' exchange business continues, much to the inconvenience of Calle Reconquista traffic. Tucuman notes are now in the market, but everyone receives them, and there is no talk of false Tucuman notes.

The sale of the premises Calle Bolivar, 17½x70, occupied by Nacional, is reported for 300,000 Nats.; Mr. Gowland buyer.

Kelso's Weekly Mail List was handed round to-day with the following changes marked in departure of packets:—
Potosi sails on 12th inst.
Amerique sails on 14th
Dom Pedro sails on 16th

Later advices from the Mount announce that a London syndicate is reported to have offered 15 millions dollars to the Obras Company. The creditors of Dr. Reus are now to a large extent satisfied to accept a composition which will enable the latter to return to Montevideo. A Colonizadora Company with capital of 15 millions is reported on the tapis, and six Buenos Ayres capitalists form part of the Syndicate.

The barque Maria Elizabeth, which arrived in port yesterday, has on board the captain and crew of the barque Macabe abandoned in a storm off Port Alegre on 29th May. The tempest, which lasted over two days, was so furious as to leave the ship quite helpless, and the captain and crew took refuge in a boat until rescued.

The La Plata Produce Market Company advises holders of these shares that 3rd call of 20 o/o is now payable.

The Finance Minister has ordered to be paid to Messrs. Madero and Sons. their commission for last month. These gentlemen are entitled by their contract to a per centage on the cost of the works. The cost last month amounted to $394,308 gold, and they are to receive $21,054 gold.

Mr. P. A. Costa's project to start a Centro Agricolas Bank, now before Congress, was much discussed in the hall to-day, and many think that the business will be a great success. The gist of the scheme is to start an establishment with 5 million pounds sterling as capital, to build large warehouses, deposits and elevators at all the railway stations of the Centro Agricolas, lend money at moderate interest to the farmers, make advances on the crops, and other transactions of a similar nature, for which purpose branches of the bank will be started in all the colonies and Centros. The company solicit permission to connect their elevators and deposits with whatever lines of railway they may think fit, also to have their own deposits and elevators in the different parts of the republic, and seek immunity from taxation for 20 years. In return the capital of £5,000,000 will be subscribed for immediately in England, and the board will be composed of Argentines solely.

Advices from Montevideo report that Baring Bros. have taken the Railway Bonds, amounting to 15 million dollars, firm, which is a great triumph for Uruguayan credit. An Argentine syndicate is busy buying up the Inmobiliario stock. The proposals to amortize the 20,870 shares of the Obras company embrace 17, and were opened to-day.

The following transactions in real-estate are reported:—

Calle Peru and Garay, 9x10 varas for 9x600 m/n.

Parque, between Junin and Andes, 25 x 55 for 120,000 m/n.
